main camp rules

Under 18's require parents or guardians to sign the registration form. Decisions of the camp convenors are final. No bad language, smoking, alcohol or drugs. Rooms are out of bounds to the opposite sex. Campers must attend all activities and cannot leave the campsite unless permission is obtained from the convenors. Breaching camp rules may incur immediate suspension, parents will be notified and expected to retrieve the camper.

I understand that the registration is accepted on the condition that financial responsibility incurred as a result of any accidents or illness cannot be assumed by Presbyterian Youth in Victoria. I agree to abide by the decisions of the camp committee and act in a considerate manner towards other campers. I have let the camp leaders know on this form of any known condition likely to affect safety or comfort.

On this camp we will be looking at two main areas: glorifying God in the workplace, and glorifying God in the church. There will be elective workshops to help you work out how you can make the most of the abilities that God has given you.

speaker

Douglas Milne is the Principal of PTC and is involved in coordinating the life and classes at the College, and lecturing in Theology and Ethics. He is passionate about the Word of God and is excited about celebrating Calvin's 500th birthday this year. He loves ornithology, and if you want to know what that is, you should ask him (a clue: travel and binoculars). He has lived in Australia for 30 years with his wife Joan. He has two children, Mairi and Mark, and four grandchildren, Lara, Duncan, Lucien and baby Shona. He is excited about meeting and spending time with everyone on camp!
