

STOP PRESS!!!

Hume Presbyterian Church

The Hume Presbyterian Church is proud to sponsor:

Jason Coghill in Concert

Saturday Night, 12 November 2005 @ 7:30 p.m.
Hume Presbyterian Church

(SDA Church location: Corners of Section & Somerton Roads)

[In 1995 Jason, together with Matthew Jacoby and Rod Gear formed the band Sons of Korah, now an internationally renowned acoustic trio dedicated to composing music to the psalms. Jason left the band to pursue a solo career, composing, arranging and producing recordings of the psalms in various musical and a cappella styles. He continues in this and also teaches singing at senior college level. Jason leads the singing at the Presbyterian Church of Eastern Australia in Geelong, where he is also a deacon. In 2000, at age 28, he graduated from the Reformed Theological College, Geelong, with a Diploma of Theology. Jason is married to Jane who is also a musician currently studying at Melbourne University. In March 2005, Jason signed with independent label Small House Records Australia, and released a new album in July this year.

Light supper to follow

For more details, contact cskroeger@bigpond.com or phone 9333 4264

NOTE: This is a FREE Concert paid for by the Hume Presbyterian Church. There will be an offering taken during the concert to support AFES work in local Universities.

Bring along your youth groups, CU's or just come along yourself and enjoy some really GREAT MUSIC!

www.humepc.pcvic.org.au

An event recommended by:

