Presbyterian Youth Victoria c a f é T H E O L O G I C A

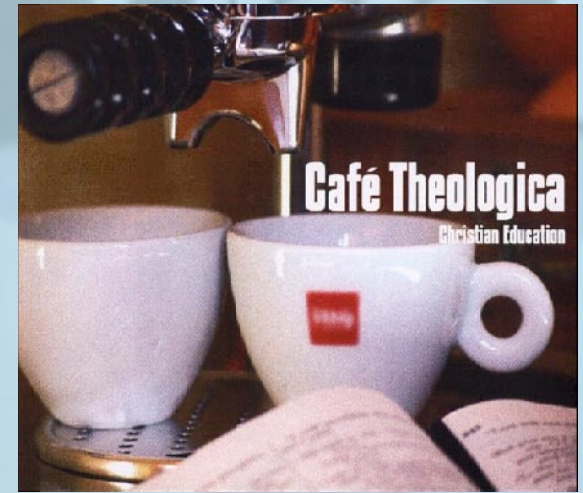

What is being offered?

The second unit offered in PYV's leadership training scheme called "Foundations" is Christian Education. Offered in partnership with the PTC, participants gain credit towards the Australian College of Theology ThA award. This subject is intended to resource you to pass on your biblical knowledge in your local church, in CRE and beyond. It is open by application to any Christian aged 17 and over.

Cost varies between $20 and $110.

The subject will be launched at 3:15pm, at Surrey Hills Presbyterian on Saturday 2nd September. If you want more information, please contact training@pyv.org.au, or call (03) 9017 4676.

Topics covered: Theories of learning; the role of education in the Christian faith; education and age.

Café Theologica is a flexible, distance method of delivery using audio CDs created by the training department of Presbyterian Youth in NSW. The assignments and exams will be moderated by Rev David Brown.
